Bela Silva

Bela Silva is born in Lisbon, Portugal, and studied at both the Porto and the Lisbon Fine Arts Schools in Portugal; ArCo, Lisbon; Norwich Fine Arts in the UK; School of The Art Institute of Chicago in the United States. She currently lives between Lisbon and Brussels, Belgium.

Among her shows: Chicago's Ann Nathan Gallery and Rhona Hoffman Gallery; Lisbon's Museu do Azulejo (Tile Museum), Museu Anastácio Gonçalves in Lisbon, Palácio da Ajuda, and Fundação Ricardo Espírito Santo; and also shows in China and in Japan. She has participated in group shows of tile art in Brazil, Spain, France; ran ceramics workshops in Japan and Morocco; and been awarded residencies at Kohler, Wisconsin, USA, and at Fabrica Bordalo Pinheiro, Caldas da Rainha, Portugal.

She has created several public art pieces, namely tile panels for the Alvalade subway station in Lisbon; panels for the Sakai Cultural Center's gardens in Japan; and panels for the João de Deus School in the Azores Islands. She created 12 large pieces in 2017 for the gardens of the museum of Ancient Art as well as exhibited her work that same year at the museum of Orient in Lisbon, mixed with the collections.

Spazio Nobile has represented Bela Silva since 2017. Among her shows at the gallery and on fairs: Season X-Land/Scapes, Collectible Design Fair in Brussels, Art Brussels in duo show with Finnish artist Kustaa Saksi, Révélations Biennial at Grand Palais, Paris, Unique Design Shanghai at Tank, West Bund in November 2019.

Spazio Nobile is pleased to present Codex Mexico limited edition of 250, each numbered and signed by Bela Silva. Codex Mexico is designed in the form of a leporello and accompanies her solo show on view at the gallery, Season XIV - Bela Silva, Despierta Corazón Dormido, from 13 March until 24 May 2020.

Conceived as a travel book, Codex Mexico is a “tableau vivant” of Bela Silva’s new series of colourful artworks that are inspired by her recent travels to Mexico. More than 40 drawings create a composition that celebrates Latin-American culture, its history and its diverse craftsmanship. This inspirational trip has infused Bela Silva’s art with new colours and glazes in a cycle of drawings, ceramic works, jewels and more.

In reference to Mesoamerican manuscripts – from Mixtec, Mayan, and Aztec origins – Codex Mexico is designed as a long-folded sheet, like the original codices, which used to be made out of long strips of leather (deer hide), cotton cloth or bark paper, occasionally protected by wooden covers. It also evokes the Japanese Orihon, which consists of a long strip of paper that is written on one side and then compacted by folding it.

By opening Spazio Nobile in 2016, in the dynamic and cosmopolitan Ixelles neighbourhood of Brussels (Belgium), Lise Coirier and Gian Giuseppe Simeone have united their passions for design and art history, initiating a dialogue between contemporary applied arts, design and photography. Commissioning installations that are both experimental and artistic, with a particular sensibility to everything connected to nature and minerality, the gallery organises four to five exhibits each year, dedicated to both rising and established talents. Without creating borders between the disciplines, the visual arts interact with the fine arts.
