Radical Ornament, Duo Show

Amor Immeuble & Willie Morlon

Celebrating a century of decorative arts, Spazio Nobile highlights the interdisciplinary work of French architectural practice Amor Immeuble and visual artist Willie Morlon, who both explore and reinvent the 19th-century approach to ornament in art and architecture by using contemporary or reclaimed building materials in a renewed ornamental expression

Info

Radical Ornament, Duo Show

From plaster inlays to marble and wood sculptures, from photolithography to graphite on paper, this duo exhibition creates a framework and narrative that challenges the use of standardised materials for research and creation within innovative and artistic practices

Amor Immeuble

Willie Morlon

In dialogue with material research-driven contemporary artists, designers, Belgian Kaspar Hamacher, Hong-Kong Helsinki-based Didi NG Wing Yin and German Fabian von Spreckelsen
